

ANNOUNCEMENTS

January 22, 2023

TODAY

- | | Ushers | Greeters |
|------|-------------------|-------------------------|
| 1/22 | Matt and Jim | Kurt and Erin Kafferlin |
| 1/29 | Dan B. and Robbie | Rob and Ellen Sikora |
- Today after our service we will enjoy a fellowship meal followed by our Annual Meeting, always a time for giving thanks for what God has done and prayer and deliberation about the coming year. Information packets are available in the back of the sanctuary. The meeting is open to all.
Members can attend the meeting in person or via Zoom.
The elders are grateful to put the following individuals up for congregational vote for church office: Re-election to church office: Mike Breen (Up for 3 year term as Elder); Chris Liff (Up for 3 year term as Trustee).
- There will be no 4:30 service today; Evening service will resume on Luke 22 at 4:30 on Sunday January 29, and then conclude this four part series on Sunday 2/12/23.

THIS WEEK

- Wednesday, January 17, 7:00 pm: Romans study online.
- Thursday, January 19, 1:30 pm: Gospel of Mark Bible study at church and online
- Thursday, January 26, 7:00 pm: Book of Esther Barre ladies study at Durhams'.

UPCOMING

- January 27-29, 2023: Winter Weekend for Youth at COPC.
- April 13-15, 2023: PNYNE Ladies Retreat. See details in foyer.

Sola Gratia

“Submerge yourself in the truth of your union with Christ. Let it wash over you. The divine Son, through whom all things were made (Col. 1:16), who upholds the universe by the word of his power (Heb. 1:3), the one without whose constant care and guidance all of molecular reality would fall apart (Col. 1:17), is the one with whom you have been united. Through no activity of your own, but by the sheer and mighty grace of God, you have been enveloped in the triumphant and tender rule of the cosmos.” (Dane Ortlund, Deeper)

Q. 29. What are the bonds of our union with Christ?

A. The Spirit on Christ's part, 1 John 3:24, and faith on ours, Eph. 3:17.

Q. 30. Is it the Spirit on Christ's part, or faith on ours, that unites the sinner to Christ?

A. They both concur in their order: Christ first quickens the sinner by his Spirit, Eph. 2:5; and the sinner thus apprehended, apprehends Christ by faith, Phil. 3:12.

Q. 31. How may persons know if they are apprehended of Christ?

A. If he has engaged their love and esteem, and dissolved the regard they had to other things that came in competition with him, 1 Pet. 2:7.

Q. 32. Are the bonds of this union inviolable?

A. Yes; "I give unto them," says Christ, "eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall any pluck them out of my hand," John 10:28.

(Fishers' Commentary on West Short Cat. Q & A 30)

Contact info: Pastor: Carl Durham (cell) 802-272-5864 pastor@copcvl.org

Elders: Michael Breen, Chris Liff Andrew Selle (Teacher), Michael Sherburne

Deacons: Craig Comstock, Kevin McMahon

Pastoral Intern: Samuelis Lukosius

249 Airport Road, Barre, VT 05641 www.copcvl.org

Sola Gratia

“Submerge yourself in the truth of your union with Christ. Let it wash over you. The divine Son, through whom all things were made (Col. 1:16), who upholds the universe by the word of his power (Heb. 1:3), the one without whose constant care and guidance all of molecular reality would fall apart (Col. 1:17), is the one with whom you have been united. Through no activity of your own, but by the sheer and mighty grace of God, you have been enveloped in the triumphant and tender rule of the cosmos.” (Dane Ortlund, Deeper)

Q. 29. What are the bonds of our union with Christ?

A. The Spirit on Christ's part, 1 John 3:24, and faith on ours, Eph. 3:17.

Q. 30. Is it the Spirit on Christ's part, or faith on ours, that unites the sinner to Christ?

A. They both concur in their order: Christ first quickens the sinner by his Spirit, Eph. 2:5; and the sinner thus apprehended, apprehends Christ by faith, Phil. 3:12.

Q. 31. How may persons know if they are apprehended of Christ?

A. If he has engaged their love and esteem, and dissolved the regard they had to other things that came in competition with him, 1 Pet. 2:7.

Q. 32. Are the bonds of this union inviolable?

A. Yes; "I give unto them," says Christ, "eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall any pluck them out of my hand," John 10:28.

(Fishers's Commentary on West Short Cat. Q & A 30)

*Contact info: Pastor: Carl Durham (cell) 802-272-5864 pastor@copevt.org
Elders: Michael Breen, Chris Liff Andrew Selle (Teacher), Michael Sherburne
Deacons: Craig Comstock, Kevin McMahon
Pastoral Intern: Samuelis Lukosius
249 Airport Road, Barre, VT 05641 www.copevt.org*

ANNOUNCEMENTS

January 22, 2023

TODAY

- | | | |
|------|-------------------|-------------------------|
| • | Ushers | Greeters |
| 1/22 | Matt and Jim | Kurt and Erin Kafferlin |
| 1/29 | Dan B. and Robbie | Rob and Ellen Sikora |
- Today after our service we will enjoy a fellowship meal followed by our Annual Meeting, always a time for giving thanks for what God has done and prayer and deliberation about the coming year. Information packets are available in the back of the sanctuary. The meeting is open to all.
Members can attend the meeting in person or via Zoom.
The elders are grateful to put the following individuals up for congregational vote for church office: Re-election to church office: Mike Breen (Up for 3 year term as Elder); Chris Liff (Up for 3 year term as Trustee).
 - There will be no 4:30 service today; Evening service will resume on Luke 22 at 4:30 on Sunday January 29, and then conclude this four part series on Sunday 2/12/23.

THIS WEEK

- Wednesday, January 17, 7:00 pm: Romans study online.
- Thursday, January 19, 1:30 pm: Gospel of Mark Bible study at church and online
- Thursday, January 26, 7:00 pm: Book of Esther Barre ladies study at Durhams'.

UPCOMING

- January 27-29, 2023: Winter Weekend for Youth at COPC.
- April 13-15, 2023: PNYNE Ladies Retreat. See details in foyer.