The Lordship Of Christ And The Lostness Of Man

Psalm 90:1-17

I. Behold God the Eternal! (and Mankind Lost in Time)

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God. You return man to dust and say, "Return, O children of man!" For a thousand years in your sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night. You sweep them away as with a flood; they are like a dream

(vss. 2-6)

II. Behold God, the Infinitely Pure! (and Mankind Lost In Sin)

All our days pass away under your wrath; we finish our years with a moan. (vs. 9)

III. Behold God the Gracious! (and Mankind, Found In God's Covenant Love)

Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing love, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days. (vs. 14)

A. The Grace of Wisdom

Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain a heart of wisdom. (vs. 12)

B. The Grace of Deliverance from Sin and its Curse

May your deeds be shown to your servants, your splendor to their children. (vs. 16)

C. The Grace of Meaningful Labor

And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it. (vs. 17 KJV)

Conclusion

The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. O Come, My Soul (Psa 103)

6 Trinity Hymnal

1 O come, my soul, bless thou the Lord thy Maker,
and all within me bless his holy name;
bless thou the Lord, forget not all his mercies,
his pard'ning grace and saving love proclaim.

Refrain:

Bless him forever, wondrous in might,
bless him, his servants that in his will delight.

2 Good is the Lord and full of kind compassion,
most slow to anger, plenteous in love;
rich is his grace to all that humbly seek him, boundless and endless as the heav'ns above. [Refrain]

3 His love is like a father's to his children, tender and kind to all who fear his name;
for well he knows our weakness and our frailty, he knows that we are dust, he knows our frame. [Refrain]

4 We fade and die like flow'rs that grow in beauty,
like tender grass that soon will disappear;
but evermore the love of God is changeless, still shown to those who look to him in fear. [Refrain]

5 High in the heav'ns his throne is fixed forever,
his kingdom rules o'er all from pole to pole;
bless ye the Lord through all his wide dominion, bless his most holy name, O thou my soul. [Refrain] ****

Invocation & Lord’s Prayer

God’s Law insert

Confession of Sin (unison)
Sovereign Lord, to whom angels cry “Holy, holy, holy,” you are infinite, eternal, and unchanging in your being, wisdom, power, truth, and goodness. In your presence we recognize that we are more sinful than we ever thought. Our sin blinds us to the truth of who we really are. Yet you see all and know all; we cannot hide even our deepest secrets from you. O God, cleanse us by your Holy Spirit, and renew us by your grace. Help us to trust more fully in the righteousness of Christ, who died for our sin, and was raised for our justification. Amen.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE LORD’S SUPPER

 Communion Hymn Come, Ye Disconsolate
615 Trinity Hymnal

- 1 Come, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish,
come to the mercy seat, fervently kneel;
here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish;
earth has no sorrows that heav'n cannot heal.
- 2 Joy of the comfortless, light of the straying,
hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure!
Here speaks the Comforter, in mercy saying,
"Earth has no sorrows that heav'n cannot cure."
- 3 Here see the Bread of life; see waters flowing forth from the throne of God, pure from above;
come to the feast prepared; come, ever knowing earth has no sorrows but heav'n can remove. **

Closing Prayer

 Closing Hymn Our God, Our Help (Psa 90)
30 Trinity Hymnal

- 1 Our God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home:
- 2 Under the shadow of your throne your saints have dwelt secure;
sufficient is your arm alone, and our defense is sure.
- 3 Before the hills in order stood, or earth received her frame,
from everlasting you are God, to endless years the same.
- 4 A thousand ages in your sight are like an evening gone;
short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.
- 5 The busy tribes of flesh and blood, with all their lives and cares, are carried downward by your flood, and lost in foll'wing years.
- 6 Time, like an ever-rolling stream, bears all its sons away;
they fly forgotten, as a dream dies at the op'ning day.
- 7 Our God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come:
O be our guard while troubles last, and our eternal home. **
